Dear Members

The golf courses at Changi and Kranji were the venues for three club events recently, each celebrating a cherished tradition in its own right but all given the NSRCC touch to make them uniquely different.

Captain's Cup is an important fixture on the golf calendar that has a "Gotong Royong" element, setting it apart from other similar events. Golftoberfest incorporates a golf game into the popular Bavarian beer festival. Golf and beer, a perfect pairing some would say! And the Mid-Autumn Lantern walk on the golf course combines the best of two different worlds for families with young children.

All three events received great support from members but for those who were not there, we have the stories and pictures in this issue.

Elsewhere in this issue we cover the triumphs of the NSRCC Bowling Team at the 24th Adult Inter-Club Bowling Mixed League. Heartiest congratulations bowlers!

And to whet the appetite of fans of fresh seafood, we make a trip to the Pontian fish market in neighboring Johor for a taste of freshly caught seafood cooked right on the spot! From the sea to the table so to speak.

With the year-end school holiday around the corner, do bring your family down to the Club for lots of fun activities.

See you soon!

Notice of Error: We would like to clarify that in the Editor's Note for the September/October 2018 edition of Resort View, it was the Club's Ladies Premier team which emerged as the Overall Division Champions against Orchid Country Club.

Our Bowling Team Champions of the Adult Interclub League!

NSRCC Bowling Team is the Champions of the 24th Adult Inter-Club Bowling Mixed League! With a total of 93 league points, our bowling team scored a clear win against the 1st Runner-Up, Chinese Swimming Club with 77 league points. Changi Beach Club took 2nd Runner-Up with 72 league points.

Our bowling team also won another team award, the Team High Series Scratch with a total of 2542 pin falls! In addition, our bowlers brought home four individual titles:

2nd Runner Up, League Masters Finals (Ladies), Michelle Ng (right)

League Individual Award

High Game Scratch (Men)	Remy Ong (279 pin falls)
High Game Series Scratch (Men)	Nicholas Sit (738 pin falls)

League Masters Finals

3 rd Runner-Up (Men)	Benjamin Ang (2092 pin falls)
2 nd Runner-Up (Ladies)	Michelle Ng (1812 pin falls)

Hearty congratulations to all our bowlers for their win!

During this year's league, NSRCC sent a team of 16 bowlers - 11 men & five ladies – to compete against seven other clubs. The league was hosted by Chinese Swimming Club from Apr 12 to Oct 7.

The prize presentation was also held at Chinese Swimming Club.

A Walk in the Golf Course

Picture perfect!

Yay we finished 3rd!

Winners of the Pomelo Peeling Competition,
Mr Patrick Toh's Family

An overwhelming number of more than 120 participants joined our annual Mid-Autumn Lantern Walk in the Golf Course this year. Held on Sep 22 at NSRCC Changi, participants were treated to clear skies for a cool and enjoyable walk! Indeed, it was most fortuitous that clear skies prevailed as it had been raining heavily for a whole week before the event, and that there was even light rain earlier that afternoon.

At 7.00pm, the event started with a pomelo peeling competition. What an event starter it was! It definitely helped to lift everyone's spirits for a fun-filled night. Congratulations to all the winners: Mr Patrick Toh's family (1st), Mr Mark Heng's family (2nd), as well as Mr Ian Lau's family and Mr Derrick Lee's family (tied at 3rd)!

Following that, the real fun began! Participants, divided into batches of 20 per group, were led into the golf course for the walk. With lanterns in their hands, the participants lighted up the NSRCC Changi golf course with every step they took; it was indeed a beautiful sight! Each participant completed a total of 1.3km and many shared that they had a wonderful family bonding time.

A family who walks together, stays together!

Peace! Can we go now?

Lantern walking is enjoyable for everyone!

Who knew pomelo peeling can be competitive yet fun

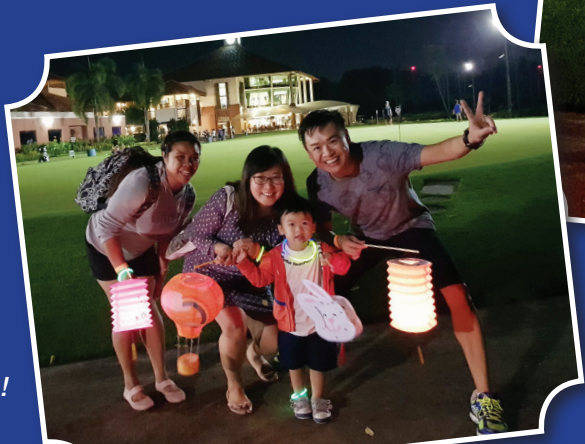

Quite fast, finishing at 2nd place!

Upon their return to the Clubhouse, participants were treated to light refreshments, including mooncakes to mark to the occasion. The younger participants were also given sparklers. While the children played sparklers with their newly made friends, many adults took the opportunity to savour the mooncakes in the company of their loved ones, under the bright, full moon.

All smiles from this lovely family

Ready to go!

NSRCC's

5th Golftoberfest

Oct 5 marks the 5th year in which NSRCC has organised its popular GolftoberFest, which combines golfing in the day and dinner at night.

This year saw a group of 111 participants, looking to have a memorable time with friends and family over a game of golf and an evening filled with German fare.

Ready for a good game

Participants in high spirits even before the game started!

Lots of fun playing games during dinner!

We were blessed with perfect weather as golfers teed-off excitedly over our 18 holes course.

As golfers finished their golf game, preparation for the evening's programme began. The Leaders' Room was transformed to fit the GolftoberFest theme and the aroma of delicious German delicacies filled the air.

The dinner reception started off with lots of beer for guests in attendance, living up to the true spirit of what Oktoberfest is all about!

The night was filled with games and laughter and at the end of the night, 15 lucky winners walked away with attractive prizes.

We hope to see you at our next GolftoberFest in 2019!

Congratulations to all the lucky draw winners!

A Tsukiji Market in Pontian?

Contributed by Mike Neo, NSRCC Member

Pontian Wholesale Fish Market

Address : PASAR AWAM, 82000 PONTIAN, JOHOR Pontian, Malaysia

Has the famed Tsukiji Market shifted to Pontian? Of course not! Although this would be most ideal as it would save fish lovers in Singapore and Malaysia a lot of time and cost in not having to fly to Tokyo for their fish fixation.

The Pontian District is located southwest of Johore, Malaysia and it has a population of less than 200,000 people. Formerly a fishing village, it has been developed into an exciting small town and a leisurely drive of about one and a half hours from the causeway. Be prepared to spend more than half a day in this town as there are a lot to do and more importantly, feast on!

Evidently, the wholesale fish market is a paradise for Singaporeans as it is noted for its variety of fresh fishes sold at reasonable prices. The market starts at about 10.30 am and lorries loaded with fishes from the nearby Kukup jetty will be streaming in from 11.00 am onwards. They will then be quickly unloaded, packed in bundles and weighed to get ready for bidding by mostly retail fishmongers. Although the bidding process is conducted through whispers, the old fashion way, the market is lively, buzzing and really fun to watch. The bidding process does not take too long and thereafter, fish hunters can then start buying their favorite species. After you have selected the preferred fishes, you can request the purchase to be cut, cleaned and scaled to your desire.

Opposite the fish market there are 3 old coffee shops, selling aromatic traditional Pontian coffee,

Some of the local delicacies that you can get from coffee shops near Pontian Wholesale Fish Market charcoal toasted bread with homemade kaya and soft-boiled eggs for RM 5 (S$1.60). Within each coffee shop there is a “tze char” stall that sells cooked dishes such as fried black sauce noodles, “wok hei hor fun” and fried rice. I cannot vouch for the hygiene but my gut feel was – Just Eat It! If you buy the fish from the market, the stalls will cook for you for a fee. The price varies according to the style of preparation; between RM8-20 each dish depending on whether it is fried, steamed or asam curry. My 5 dishes were prepared by “Ah Huat” tze char stall for a cost of RM 72 (S$24)!

Interestingly, there are also other stalls in and outside of the coffee shops selling local comfort food such as roti canai, fried carrot cake (char kuay), fish soup and for dessert, there is a van which doubles up as a mobile stall selling freshly cut local pineapples. Any trip there will never be short of glorious food which carries with it a high risk of over indulgence. I did not take my dinner after the huge and delicious brunch, settling for a simple bowl of oatmeal in the late evening. Guess I did that also to moderate my guilt of over eating. If you asked me if the trip was worthwhile and if I would go again, I would say yes, for at least a few more times. There is a lot more to discover about this enigmatic town which is also famous for its wonton noodles and lip-smacking bak kut teh. But let’s leave that as a subject for another time.

Greenside Matters

NOV/DEC 2018

We are at the close of 2018, which has been another busy golfing year for us especially in the SGA Inter-Club League. In the final, Team NSRCC put up a strong showing against Seletar Country Club, and emerged victorious at the 2018 SGA Inter-Club League Championship! The Ladies' Premier team also emerged the overall Division Champions and Our Senior Division Team finished as Runners'-Up. Congratulation and well done to Team NSRCC!

Looking ahead, the Greens Committee together with Club Management will continue to host our regular golf events at both NSRCC Changi and Kranji. We are heartened to see members' participation and look forward to your continued support in 2019. The club will also look into members suggestions to make these events enjoyable and challenging for the golfers. Further information on upcoming golfing events will be soon available on our website, social platforms as well as noticeboards around both clubhouses.

The Club will soon be unveiling its new 5-storey Driving Range at NSRCC Changi in the 2nd half of 2019. Many of our golfing members have been waiting eagerly for its completion, and we are glad to report that the project is on schedule as planned. During this period Carparks B and D will be closed till end of November 2018, not affecting more than 12 lots at a time and please bear with us for the inconvenience caused.

Concurrently, the Club is also renovating 5 holes at its Changi course, to comply with the reconfigured land boundaries and also improve turf conditions. Faced with the inconvenience during this interim, we are very appreciative of the understanding and patience shown by our members.

Even before the renovation, our Changi course has long experienced much higher traffic than our Kranji course, and more so over the weekend/PH period. To better align our golf slot allocation to meet evolving needs, we will be increasing the allocation of internet booking slots by 4 for each of the weekend/PH day at our Changi course from January 2019 onwards. This is made possible by (1) reallocating one walk-in booking slot per AM/PM session, and (2) reallocating one committee slot per AM/PM session to Internet booking. We appreciate the understanding of our walk-in booking users and our committee members for these changes.

On top of that and in view of the rising cyber security concerns, the Club will continue to beef up the reliability and security of our booking system to serve our members better. Internet bandwidth to the server has been increased in the last 6 months, and more enhancement to the server and application will happen in the next few months. Last but not least, to reshape the golfing traffic, the Club is implementing discounted rates for golfing at Kranji to alleviate the heavy demand at Changi, so watch out for the good news coming your way.

We look forward to your continuous support at NSRCC! Happy Golfing!

Golf 1-0-1 contributor Brian Tan is a member of the Greens Committee, and oversees Rules and Tournaments at NSRCC. When he's not busy officiating as a Rules Official, he can be found contributing balls to NSRCC's penalty areas.

Golf 101 – The New Rules in 2019

In a previous edition in 2017, we discussed some new rules that could potentially be introduced come Jan 1, 2019. The new Rules of Golf are now finalised, and it is now appropriate to highlight three of the more pertinent changes.

New Areas of the Course

The course is now divided into the General Area, Teeing Area, Bunkers, Penalty Areas, and Putting Green.

Of particular note are Penalty Areas. Water hazards are superseded by the expanded concept of penalty areas. A penalty area would include both (1) all areas currently defined in the Rules as a water hazard or lateral water hazard and (2) any other areas the Committee chooses to define as penalty areas. Penalty areas may therefore include areas such as deserts or jungles. In light of this new allowance, course markings at both NSRCC locations may be seeing some changes and we will be covering these changes in future Golf 101 issues.

For a more comprehensive overview, the latest Player's Guide to the Rules of Golf in the familiar handbook size is now available at the Golfing Reception for all members. It is also available for download from R&A's website or the Android Play Store or Apple App Store for free.

GOLF 101

Dropping

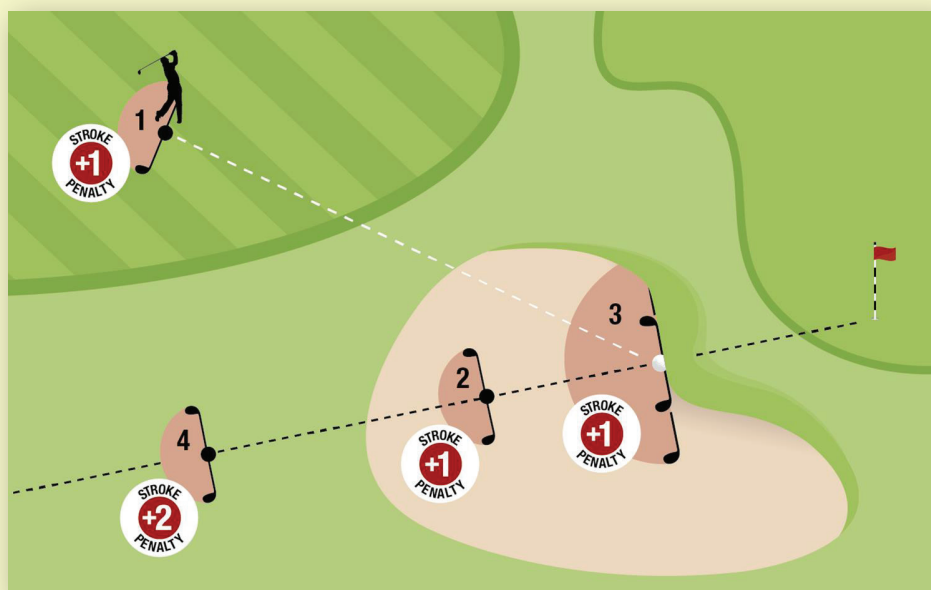

Players must now drop balls from knee height and the ball must drop straight down without touching the player or equipment before hitting the ground. Knee height means the height of the player's knee when in a standing position.

The ball must come to rest in the relief area where it was dropped, or else the ball must be re-dropped.

Relief from Bunkers

When a player's ball lies in a bunker, there are now 4 options for relief (other than playing the ball as it lies). Option 1, play from where the previous stroke was made (Stroke-and-Distance relief). Option 2, drop in a relief area within the bunker that is based on a reference line going straight back from the hole through the spot of the original ball (Back-on-the-Line relief). Option 3, drop in a relief area within 2 club lengths within the bunker (Lateral relief). Option 4, under penalty of 2 strokes, take Back-on-the-Line relief outside the bunker.

Let's Chip with More Spin!

By Bernie Tan, Certified Instructor, Mizuno Golf School

Things that you need:

- A golf ball
- A 56 degree loft wedge with 5 - 8 degrees bounce
- Efficient amount of training before using on actual golf rounds

In this edition, we are going to look at how to chip a 25 foot chip with an optimum ball flight and more spin that will land where you want it to, and stop nearer to the pin.

First, set up at address with the ball more towards the left of the middle of your stance.

Now, place the club and open the face to its maximum with an open stance. Your body weight should be 60% left and 40% right.

Now take the swing hip high with a wrist hinge.

Swing it through keeping the face open with the weight on the left side and rotating through the shot.

Captain's Cup @ NSRCC Kranji

Gotong Royong on the course

Man of the event, Club Captain with his flightmates

The Club's final golf tournament for this year, Captain's Cup, was held at NSRCC Kranji on Sep 22. The tournament saw participation from about 90 golfers.

Unlike other earlier tournaments held this year, Captain's Cup started off differently, with a "Gotong Royong" (a Malay term that describes the spirit of working together for the benefit of the community). Golfers were seen filling up divots for the fairways and greens on the hole which they were assigned to. After finishing their part for the "Gotong Royong", golfers then moved to the next tee box to commence their play.

Thumbs up, let's go!

Filling up divots on the fairway

Players were treated to fair weather to accompany their game. Many took the chance to admire the lush greenery at NSRCC Kranji while enjoying their golfing round. After their game, golfers proceeded to The Sanctuary for dinner, lucky draw and prize presentation.

The Club would like to thank all our members and their guests for your kind support towards our golf tournaments throughout 2018 and we look forward to your continued support next year!

Understand Your Mental Health – Coping with Change

Mental health is about how we feel, think and act as we cope with our lives. It also determines how we handle stress. Like physical health, mental health is important at every stage of life. It is crucial to take charge of your mental health. Learn how to manage life's ups and downs and build mental resilience.

It's been said that the only thing constant in life is change. Sometimes it's a breeze, other times it's a painful process. Some people see change as a positive challenge, others fret and agonize over the consequences it brings. So here are some tips to help deal with it more effectively.

Don't rush it

Give yourself time to adjust and settle down as it involves a transition from one set of circumstances to another.

Expect a reaction

Change often involves a degree of loss, so it's OK to grieve a little and feel nostalgic. Emotions will be stirred so let yourself laugh, cry or feel moody about it.

Don't take it personally

Don't obsess over who's to blame or why it happened.

Go with the flow

Be flexible, ride out the storm, and see how things turn out.

Don't go it alone

Share your problems with people you trust, be it your family or close friends. Others may offer a different angle to the situation.

Focus on the positive

Glass is always half full, remember?

Break it up

A large problem may seem insurmountable but it will be less so if you break it into little ones. Work on them one at a time, and give yourself a pat on the back each time you overcome one.

Learn from it

With new experiences, we grow wiser and stronger. Wisdom helps us make better decisions.

Know that it will end

Normality will return. No matter how big or difficult the change, it will come to an end when the new circumstances are in place and become familiar.
