Sealand Villa FAQs

What are the things to take note during the period of stay?

Guests must adhere to the house rules at all time. This is to provide a conducive and pleasant place for everyone. Please refer to NSRCC website for more details of the house rules.

What should I do if there are damages to the items in the villa?

If the occupants accidentally break, stain, dirty or damage the resort property, a cleaning or repair fee would be deducted from the security deposit. If the security deposit is not sufficient to cover the full cleaning or repair fee, the occupant who has made the reservation will have to cover the remaining fee. The occupant should call the reception to request for housekeeping staff to conduct a verification that the unit is in generally clean and neat condition before checking out.

What if I lose or remove the resort items?

Missing items such as room keys, towels, or electronic accessories will be considered as lost property. The replacement cost would be deducted from the security deposit. If the security deposit is not sufficient to cover the full replacement fee, the occupant who has made the reservation will have to cover the remaining fee. The occupant should call the reception to request for housekeeping staff to conduct a verification that there are no lost or damaged property before checking out.

I am interested in making a reservation at Sealand Villa for my Unit/Department cohesion event. Who can I reach out to explore your event packages?

For events at Sealand Villa, the services and event packages would be rolled out gradually. Please contact Sealand at sealandvilla@nsrcc.com.sg should he/she require advance reservations for corporate events e.g., wedding reception, solemnisation, anniversary celebrations, SAF Unit / department cohesion and for the updated list of packages.
